

Judy Bailey – Short Bio

Since arriving in Australia from New Zealand in the 1960s, Judy Bailey has become one of Australia's leading musical identities.

In addition to a prolific career involving performance, recording, touring, teaching etc., she has received numerous awards, including the inaugural APRA award for Jazz Composition, an Australian Entertainment award for Jazz Performance, the Order of Australia Medal for services to Jazz and Education, and more recently, the Award for Distinguished Services to Australian Music. She has also been inducted into the Bell Awards Hall of Fame. Judy is the patron of John Morrison's Big Band Blast Festival in Port Macquarie, NSW.

Contact:

E: baileymusic@iinet.net.au

M:0417 122 411